This brief provides labor market information about Gerontology Occupations to assist the San Diego and Imperial Counties Community Colleges with program development and strategic planning. Gerontology Occupations include “Home Health and Personal Care Aides,” “Nursing Assistants,” and “Orderlies.” According to available labor market information, Gerontology Occupations in San Diego County have a labor market demand of 9,846 annual job openings (while average demand for a single occupation in San Diego County is 277 annual job openings), and eleven institutions in San Diego County supply 750 awards for these occupations, suggesting that there is a supply gap in the labor market. Entry-level wages are below the living wage, but median wages for “Nursing Assistants” and “Orderlies” are above the living wage. This brief recommends proceeding with caution when developing a new program and defers to the region for a program modification because a supply gap exists in the region; however, entry-level wages are below the living wage for these occupations. Colleges should also note that the percentage of students who complete a related program and earn a living wage is lower than the percentage of students who complete Career Education programs in general across the state.

Introduction

This report provides labor market information in San Diego County for the following occupational codes in the Standard Occupational Classification (SOC)¹ system:

- Home Health and Personal Care Aides (SOC 31-1120): Monitor the health status of an individual with disabilities or illness, and address their health-related needs, such as changing bandages, dressing wounds, or administering medication. Work is performed under the direction of offsite or intermittent onsite licensed nursing staff. Provide assistance with routine healthcare tasks or activities of daily living, such as feeding, bathing, toileting, or ambulation. May also help with tasks such as preparing meals, doing light housekeeping, and doing laundry depending on the patient's abilities. Provide personalized assistance to individuals with disabilities or illness who require help with personal care and activities of daily living support (e.g., feeding, bathing, dressing, grooming, toileting, and ambulation). May also provide help with tasks such as preparing meals, doing light housekeeping, and doing laundry. Work is performed in various settings depending on the needs of the care recipient and may include locations such as their home, place of work, out in the community, or at a daytime nonresidential facility.
- Nursing Assistants (SOC 31-1131): Provide or assist with basic care or support under the direction of onsite licensed nursing staff. Perform duties such as monitoring of health status, feeding, bathing, dressing, grooming, toileting, or ambulation of patients in a health or nursing facility. May include medication administration and other health-related tasks. Includes nursing care attendants, nursing aides, and nursing attendants.
- Orderlies (SOC 31-1132): Transport patients to areas such as operating rooms or x-ray rooms using wheelchairs, stretchers, or moveable beds. May maintain stocks of supplies or clean and transport equipment.

For the purpose of this report, these occupations are referred to as Gerontology Occupations.

Demand vs. Supply

Comparing labor demand (annual openings) with labor supply⁸ suggests that there is a supply gap for these occupations in San Diego County, with 9,846 annual openings and 750 awards. Comparatively, there are 158,363 annual openings in California and 2,947 awards, suggesting that there is also a supply gap across the state⁹ (Exhibit 5).

Exhibit 5: Labor Demand (Annual Openings) Compared with Labor Supply (Average Annual Awards)

	Demand (Annual Openings)	Supply (Total Annual Average Supply)	Supply Gap or Oversupply
San Diego	9,846	750	9,096
California	158,363	2,947	155,416

Please note: This is a basic analysis of supply and demand of labor. The data does not include workers currently in the labor force who could fill these positions or workers who are not captured by publicly available data. This data should be used to discuss the potential gaps or oversupply of workers; however, it should not be the only basis for determining whether or not a program should be developed.

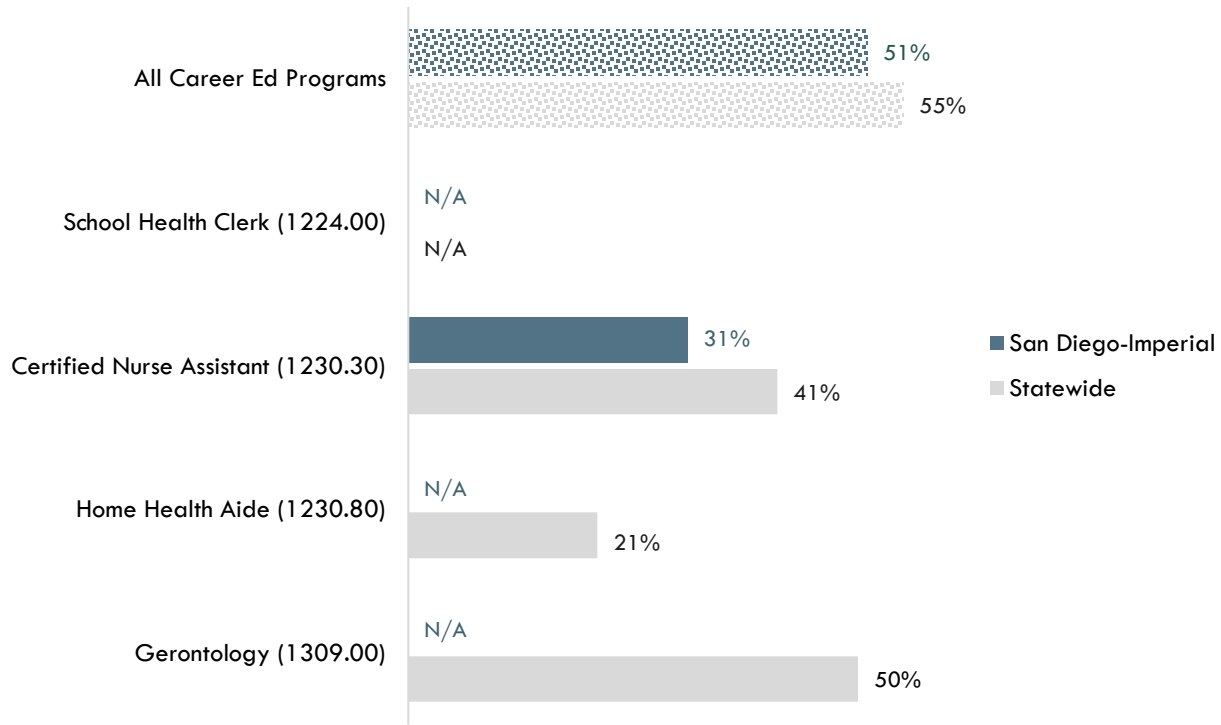

⁸ Labor supply can be found from two different sources: EMSI or the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office MIS Data Mart. EMSI uses CIP codes while MIS uses TOP codes. Different coding systems result in differences in the supply numbers.
